Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dejaeger et al (U.S. 6,456,981).

A computer-assisted method of establishing a brand presence in a facility, comprising:

entering on the playlist, by facility personnel, identifiers of advertisements related to the facility (see column 15, lines 5-16).

As per claim 2, Dejaeger teaches:

The method of claim 1, further comprising selecting, by facility personnel, a supplemental advertisement campaign (see column 1, lines 23-67).

As per claim 3, Dejaeger teaches:

The method of claim 2, wherein the supplemental advertisement campaign is selected from the group consisting of a print campaign and an email campaign (see column 1, lines 23-67; column 24, lines 7-30).

As per claim 4, Dejaeger teaches:

The method of claim 1, further comprising reserving, by an organization affiliated with the facility, certain time slots for advertisements relating to the organization (see column 15, lines 4-16; column 7, lines 15-44).

As per claim 5, Dejaeger teaches:

The method of claim 1, wherein entering on the playlist includes entering on the playlist, by facility personnel, identifiers of advertisements to be played in a portion of the facility (see column 7, lines 15-44).
